

COMMON LAW WORLD REVIEW PUBLISHING LICENCE AGREEMENT

I, _____ ('the author') of _____

agree that in consideration of the publication in Common Law World Review ('the journal') of the material entitled:

_____ ('the contribution'), to grant an exclusive licence to Vathek Publishing to reproduce and/or distribute the contribution (including any abstract, keywords, metadata etc.) in any form including print, digital, database, electronic formats or any other medium throughout the world and throughout the legal term of copyright (including any renewals and extensions of the copyright period). This grant includes licence to participate in schemes which permit the publishing by Vathek Publishing or by others of abstracts, indexes, photocopies, digitised copies or other electronic copies of the contribution legally subject to certain conditions. In the case of jointly authored material, all authors need to sign this form.

Copyright in the contribution remains the property of the author(s). When using the contribution in whole or in part elsewhere the author(s) will acknowledge the journal as the original place of publication.

The author(s) undertake not to sell or to give away the contribution in ways which would conflict directly with Vathek Publishing's commercial business.

The author(s) warrant that the contribution is not currently under consideration for publication by another journal, is original and has not already been published in whole or in substantial part; that it does not infringe the copyright or other property rights of any other person; that it does not contain any scandalous, libellous, obscene or unlawful material; and that the author(s) are entitled as owner or prospective owner of the copyright to agree to this licence.

If the contribution contains material which is someone else's copyright, the author(s) promise that the unrestricted permission of the copyright owner to reproduce the material has been obtained (please attach evidence of this) and that the material is clearly identified and acknowledged in the text.
